A FLOCK OF FORDS

Twenty-six Ford automobiles, en route from Detroit, Mich., to Nashville, Tenn., passed through Paris, Friday night, under their own power. The machines were supplied with fresh stores of oil and gasoline at the Standard Oil filling station. The motorcade left Paris at 8:00 p. m. for Winchester, on the last leg of their Southern journey. Each machine had a driver, and the departure of the flock of Lizzies was announced by a loud toot of auto horns.

BURGARS ENTER STORE

Bloodhounds were placed in commission here Sunday morning in an effort to trail burglars who effected an entrance into the grocery store of D. B. Farris & Co., Saturday night, but to no avail.

The midnight visitors gained entrance to the store by breaking the glass in the rear door and reaching through, unfastening the latch. As far as could be ascertained Sunday morning nothing of any value was taken, only a few small articles of merchandise being missing.

Sheriff M. Peale Collier and Deputy Sheriff James Gibson procured a pair of bloodhounds and placed them on the trail early Sunday morning, but the dogs gave up after a short trial, being unable to strike a scent that would lead to a clue.

—One of the most enjoyable events of the season was the box supper given Saturday night in the yard of the old Union church, located on the Russell Cave pike. Ice cream and cake were served, netting the ladies of the church a neat sum, which will be applied on repairs for the church building.

—Wm. O. Evans, retired merchant of Little Rock, recently celebrated the seventy-eighth anniversary of his birth, with a dining at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. G. Wilson. About thirty guests gathered and after partaking of the hospitality extended good wishes and felicitations to Mr. Evans.

—"Hidway," the handsome suburban home of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Davis, was the scene of a brilliant assembly of guests on Thursday afternoon, when Mrs. E. F. Clay, Mrs. Catesby Spears and Mrs. Davis entertained with a reception. About two hundred and fifty invitations were issued to friends in Paris and Bourbon, and many went to out-of-town friends, nearly all of which were accepted.

The home is very attractive with its spacious halls and rooms, so well adapted to the entertainments for which it is noted. Lovely blooming flowers and handsome palms and ferns added beauty of coloring to this stately home. All during the hours from three o'clock until six, sweet strains of music were heard from the harp and violin. Dahlias and chrysanthemums in orchid shades with white asters were used in profusion throughout the lower floor.

The dining table had for its centerpiece a silver vase of asters with four exquisite silver comports surrounding this, holding delicious confections. A very tempting meat and salad course was served to the guests in the dining room and sun parlor, which were lovely in the same decorations of orchid dahlias and white asters.

Two charming young matrons presided at the punch bowl, which was in the library. Mrs. Katherine Davis Craig and Mrs. Charles Spears. Mrs. Craig was handsome in a graceful gown of grey canton crepe and silver lace. Mrs. Spears wore a gown of jade georgette. Mrs. Clay and Mrs. Zeke Arnold received the guests in the drawing room. Mrs. Clay was handsome in a black gown of canton crepe and jet, while Mrs. Arnold wore a lovely gown of black lace. Mrs. Davis was lovely in an exquisite gown of orchid chiffon with bodice of orchid maline and dutch lace. Mrs. Spears wore an imported gown of beaded chiffon.

Those who very graciously assisted the hosts in entertaining were Mesdames E. F. Clay, Jr., Sam Clay, Brutus Clay, Ayelette Buckner, Cassius M. Clay, and little Miss Sallie Davis, the beautiful daughter of the house. She wore a white embroidered frock.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mesdames Robert Rodas Estill, James Headley, W. H. Harris, W. T. Withers, Sallie Withers, Hal Price Headley, Summer Carrick, Miss Rebel Withers (Lexington), Miss

Peggy McAvey, (Baltimore), Mrs. Tillie Woodall (Covington.)

—Mrs. Spears More, who has been quite ill for two weeks, is able to be out again.

—Gus Margolen will leave this week for Cleveland, Ohio, to go under the care of a specialist.

—The following unique invitation has been extended by members of the Jemima Johnson Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, which in itself is explanatory.

"Jemima Johnson Chapter Will have a birthday fete And every Daughter must be there To help celebrate;

So bring your pennies twenty-five, To show you're glad she's still alive; At three o'clock, with Mrs. Clay— September nineteenth is the day."

From the above it may be seen that Mrs. Cassius M. Clay will be hostess to the members of Jemima Johnson Chapter, D. A. R., this (Tuesday) afternoon, at three o'clock, at her country home, "Auvergne," on the Winchester road, near Paris. The meeting will be in the nature of a celebration of the twenty-sixth anniversary of the founding of the Chapter. Constitution Day coming as it does, the program to-day will be a Constitution Day event.

Mrs. Cassius M. Clay has been regent of the local Chapter for two terms, during which the affairs of the Chapter have been ably administered and all elements have been welded into a most harmonious whole. The Chapter is now one of the strongest and most flourishing of any in Central Kentucky. It had been originally planned to hold the jubilee celebration in 1921, but it was deferred to this year in order to combine Constitution Day with the anniversary celebration.

SUNDAY AUTO COLLISION

Sunday morning while Mr. and Mrs. Roy Batterton and two small children, of Paris, were en route in their auto from Paris out the Georgetown pike, their machine collided at the east entrance of the covered bridge on the city limits with a machine said to have been driven by a young man named Dodson.

There is a sharp curve at this point, and it is impossible to see over a short distance. Both machines were considerably damaged. Mrs. Batterton received a bad gash on the nose from flying glass from the broken windshield. Mr. Batterton and the children were uninjured.

ATTENTION, SHOOTERS

The Bourbon Gun Club will hold its regular Wednesday afternoon shoot this week at the club grounds in East Paris. The trophy for this shoot, a $10 comfort or blanket, donated by the Leader Store, is now on display in their large show window. We will have only four more shoots, for the traps will be closed for this year on November 1. Now, you shooters that want to play this game will have to get busy.

"SAVE AND SMILE"

The Pullman Gives You an Extra Room Without Increasing Your Rent

EVERY family needs extra sleeping quarters in the home in case of emergency. Unexpected visitors come; a nurse may be necessary in any home at any time; you may wish friends to remain over night or to week-end with you; you may wish to accommodate a friend or good neighbor for a night or two; the man of the family may wish a business friend remain over night, whatever the emergency or occasion may be, a Pullman provides the extra sleeping quarters.

Some families may want to rent out a room because of present high rents. Some families may be moving into smaller apartments with fewer sleeping rooms—these are but SOME of the reasons for the immense popularity of the "Pullman."

Here is an opportunity to secure the genuine Pullman, the Davenport Bed that matches up with other furnishings in your home. You can get the same designs, the same woods (mahogany, walnut or oak), the same comfort that you get in the finest stationary davenports.

Here is a beautiful living room piece of furniture that is "as handsome as the finest davenport, as comfortable as the best bed"—one that gives double, or day-and-night service—two pieces of furniture at the price of one.
